Abstract

For a library to fulfill its mission to provide community engagement and cultural dialogue, then diverse, excellent cultural programming is the key. In Cultural Programming for Libraries, the director of ALA's Public Programs Office shares time-tested strategies and practical, inspiring samples from first-rate programs across the country. Librarians, staff, and volunteers will find the practical how-to for creating comprehensive cultural program series from planning to funding to promoting. This authoritative resource outlines all the steps to:

- * Assess current community needs
- * Set goals and establish measurable outcomes
- * Develop winning partnerships that result in high quality, well-attended programs
- * Highlight and drive the use of collections
- * Gain community support and visibility through programming
- * Enhance your library's role as cultural center based on successful models
